Who Runs the Library?

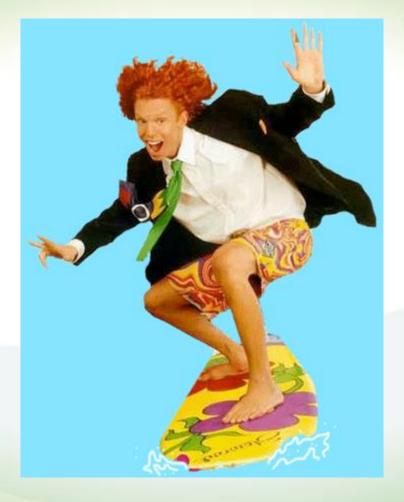

Presenter: Ben Miller, Assistant Director of Resources for Libraries & Lifelong Learning (RL&LL), Division for Libraries & Technology, DPI

Session Objectives:

- Create a successful board.
- Work productively with your town, village, or city.
- Get support from your Friends.

Partner

Partner

Plan

Partner

Protect

Plan

Board Orientation

What to give them before the first meeting:

- Copy of Chapter 43
- Open Meeting Laws
- Trustee Essentials
- Board By-laws
- Library organizational chart
- Copy of the strategic plan
- Copy of the current budget as submitted to the municipality
- Calendar of upcoming meeting times and library events
- The most recently submitted annual report
- Copy of DLT Library Standards

Board Orientation

What to show them before (or soon after) their first meeting:

- The library give them a tour
- The library website
- Previous meeting minutes
- Employee handbook
- Policy handbook
- Librarian reports from previous years

The Board Meeting

The Board Meeting

Preparing for the meeting:

- Develop the agenda with the board president
- Make sure that the agenda is legally posted according to open meeting law
- Compile and distribute board packets
 - Librarian's report
 - Bills
 - Financial statements
- Prepare clear, concise updates
- Have definite recommendations on action items

The Board Meeting

During the meeting:

- Provide recommendations on action items
- Assist the board president in running the meeting
- Facilitate discussion and ask questions of the board
- Be a resource and answer any questions that arise

Never Stop Developing Your Board

Get to know:

- Village or city administrator
- Public works
- IT Department
- Law Enforcement
- Human Relations
- Accountant
- Lawyer

Things to do:

- Attend village board meetings and give updates when it ISN'T budget time
- Encourage your board to attend village meetings and advocate for the library
- Prepare an easy to understand and fun annual report
- Find out about any charges you might incur for services
- Offer to help
 - Provide space
 - Connect the village with community groups
 - Provide technical support
- Ask for help when you need it

Things to learn:

- Commissions, committees, and meeting times.
- How do they like to communicate?
- How can you make their job easier?
- Who are the "regulars" at board meetings?

Get by with a little help from your Friends

Thanks!

